LB 1

Chair would like to introduce a special guest, Mr. Walter Sucher of the Federal Republic of Germany who is visiting the United States as a guest of the United States government. Mr. Sucher is Editor in Charge of the International Policy T.V. Branch of the "Suddeutscher Rundfunk" Stuttgart and he acts as a liaison between the West German radio and T.V. stations and two correspondents working in the Middle East and South Africa. We would like to have Herr Sucher and the young lady accompanying him through the Visitor Program here in Lincoln, Miss Jane Holland...would they both stand? They are under the North balcony. Please stand and be recognized. Welcome, Herr Sucher. We will then proceed to Final Reading but we will have to recognize Speaker Marvel for the purpose of suspension of the rules.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The bills that you see listed there are ready for Final Reading but we have to suspend the rules so we can take them up and I think there is...Will you read that motion up there?

PRESIDENT LUEDTKE: Would you read the motion, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Read Marvel's motion found on page 294 of the Legislative Journal.

PRESIDENT LUEDTKE: Any discussion as to the motion to suspend the rules for the purpose of taking up Final Reading today? If not, all those in favor of suspending the rules vote aye, opposed nay. This will require thirty votes. Have you all voted? We are voting on suspension of the rules to take up Final Reading. Record the vote.

CLERK: 32 ayes, 0 nays on the suspension of the rules, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT LUEDTKE: Motion carries. The rules are suspended and we can now take up Final Reading. The Sergeants at Arms will see that the floor is cleared, that all unauthorized personnel, all nonlegislative personnel are off of the floor as only the legislators are to be at your desks for Final Reading and all legislators will be at their desks. All right, we will proceed then, Mr. Clerk, with the reading of the first bill on Final Reading, LB 1.

CLERK: Read LB 1 on Final Reading.

PRESIDENT LUEDTKE: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, "Shall LB 1 pass"? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay.
